

#TransgenderDayofRemembrance

the Wuhan Tianjie murder, a trans woman falling off the Tai Wai Station bridge, the first transgender employment discrimination case was lost. Summer 2021 mass shutting of transgender media accounts, my parents decide who I am, I always hated my body, to give birth to a child I'm still myself, I love you regardless of being 'him' or 'her', We live truly

Our existence is the greatest rebellion against malice.

One-Among.us 那些秋叶
A Chinese transgender memorial project,
for us to not forget our friends

#TransgenderDayofRemembrance

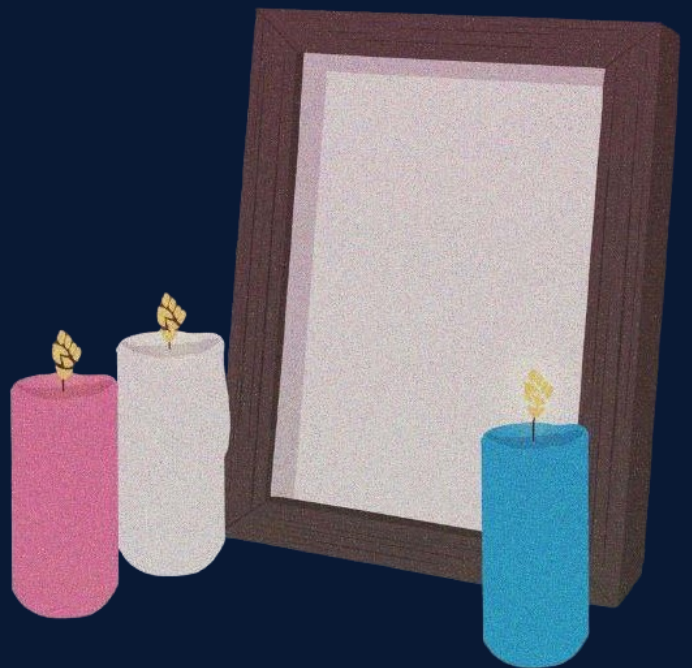

She committed suicide weeks ago, after her personal information being made exposed on the public internet

She passed away last spring in a medical incident, her photos and posts left are still being cyber-abused and sexualized and She created this trans memorial project, since then there has been continued sexual harassment towards herself, her family and her

Combat cyber-abuse towards trans people.

Together.

One-Among.us 那些秋叶

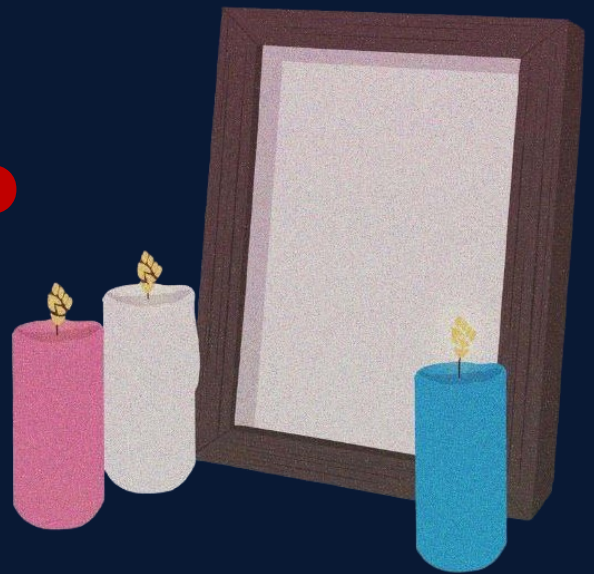

A Chinese transgender memorial project,
for us to not forget our friends

#TransgenderDayofRemembrance

China has no transgender people.

Not true at all.

China has many.

They are heavily discriminated,
are suffering, and are dying.
Remembrance. Solidarity. Fight.

One-Among.us 那些秋叶
A Chinese transgender memorial project,
for us to not forget our friends

